PRELUDE: Cantilène in F

Josef Rheinberger (1839-1901)

INTROIT HYMN: TiS 387 'Christ is alive! Let Christians sing.'

SENTENCE: 'There is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for Jesus' sake, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age, with persecutions, and in the age to come eternal life.'

Mark 10.29–30

The Service continues on page 119 of 'A Prayer Book for Australia'

COLLECT: Merciful God, in your Son you call not the righteous but sinners to repentance: draw us away from the easy road that leads to destruction, and guide us into paths that lead to life abundant, that in seeking your truth, and obeying your will, we may know the joy of being a disciple of Jesus our Saviour; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING: Job 23.1-9, 16-17

Then Job answered: 'Today also my complaint is bitter; his hand is heavy despite my groaning. O that I knew where I might find him, that I might come even to his dwelling! I would lay my case before him, and fill my mouth with arguments. I would learn what he would answer me, and understand what he would say to me. Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power? No; but he would give heed to me. There an upright person could reason with him, and I should be acquitted for ever by my judge. 'If I go forward, he is not there; or backward, I cannot perceive him; on the left he hides, and I cannot behold him; I turn to the right, but I cannot see him. God has made my heart faint; the Almighty has terrified me; If only I could vanish in darkness, and thick darkness would cover my face!

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: 22.1-15 (APBA pp. 241,242)

RESPONSE: My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?

SECOND READING: Hebrews 4.12-16

Indeed, the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account. Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

GRADUAL HYMN: TiS 590 'What a friend we have in Jesus'

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Cantor: Alleluia

ALL: Alleluia, alleluia

Cantor: *Happy the poor in spirit:
The kingdom of heaven is theirs!*

ALL: Alleluia, alleluia

The GOSPEL of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark 10.17-31

ALL: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

As he was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, 'Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: "You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honour your father and mother."' He said to him, 'Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.' Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, 'You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions. Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, 'How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!’ And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, ‘Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.’ They were greatly astounded and said to one another, ‘Then who can be saved?’ Jesus looked at them and said, ‘For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.’ Peter began to say to him, ‘Look, we have left everything and followed you.’ Jesus said, ‘Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields, with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first. This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

For those affected by drought: All things look to you, O Lord, to give them their food in due season: look in mercy on your people, and hear our prayer for those whose lives and possessions are threatened by drought. In your mercy restore your creation and heal our land. So guide and bless your people, that we may enjoy the fruits of the earth and give you thanks with grateful hearts, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

St Mary's Pathways Prayer:

Loving Father, we long to grow at St Mary's, to become a more exciting, reflective, life-giving parish family. Every week, as we gather in worship inspire us through your Holy Spirit to take new steps on our Parish Pathway Journey. Let us build that pathway to faith and service, encouraging each other, our friends and acquaintances. We ask this in Jesus name. AMEN.

Parking at St Mary's. One of the ongoing issues with increased attendance is that of car parking. Parish Council recognises that this is a particular problem, especially as many parishioners wish to stay for morning tea after the service.

1. Acknowledge that St Mary's congregation respects one another. There is no easy solution to what is a good problem, more people are coming to church.
2. Increasingly parishioners may need to double park in the car park.
3. If you have double parked someone in, then at the end of the service be prepared to move your car to a spare car park, or you may need to move your car offsite.
4. If your car is parked in, then please make it known so the owner can move it. It may not always be possible to move straight away, so please be patient.
5. Please never park across the access into the hall. Some of our congregation use walkers and if a car is parked across the child gate they can't get to the toilets.
6. Suggestions about car parking on and off site are welcome.

There will be a retiring collection today for the disasters in the Philippines and Sulawesi. ABM's Typhoon Mangkhut Emergency Appeal – ABM is responding to the Episcopal Church in the Philippines's (ECP's) request for assistance as many people have lost their homes and livelihoods.
